COMPLETE MARK DOWN

It is true the most of our Winter Garments were bought months ago, when prices were high—it is true that we selected richer and more beautiful garments at that time than ever before, because everyone was employed at good wages and were purchasing better garments than formerly.

The garments and the slump in general business, both reached Willimantic at about the same time, with the result that somebody has to take a loss, and we are that somebody.

In order to sell these beautiful garments we have marked them down about one-third in value, as low or lower than the usual February prices on such garments.

Children's Coats $8.50 to $25.00 NOW $6.98 to $21.50
Misses' Coats $27.50 to $50.00 NOW $21.50 to $37.50
Ladies' Coats $27.50 to $100.00 NOW $19.50 to $69.50
Children's Wool Dresses $8.50 to $15.00, NOW $5.98 to $9.98
Ladies' Dresses $25.00 to $50.00 NOW $19.50 to $39.50

All of our Corsets, Muslin Underwear, Knitted Underwear, Outing Flannel, Night Robes, Skirts and House Dresses are marked down.

attend the minstrel performance for the benefit of St. Bernard's church, put on at that place under the direction of George A. Bartlett of this city. Following the minstrel the local men assisted Mr. Bartlett in entertaining the performers.

The Emerald basketball team has two games scheduled for this week, one with the Storrs Independents in this city tonight (Friday) and one with the Wyanankas of Hartford Saturday night. The Storrs Independents is made up primarily of varsity players of the Connecticut Agricultural college and they are coming here to take in the game and the defeat administered there last season at the hands of the local five. A big band of rooters of both sides is coming down from Storrs to take in the game and they want victory. The Emeralds will line up as usual.

When the Emeralds go to Hartford on Saturday night they will be accompanied by a large band of rooters. Last year the Emeralds took two victories from the Wyanankas in this city and one in Storrs and they hope to do the trick again this season. The Wyanankas have strengthened their team, however, and will use several new players in the game Saturday. "Yump" Johnson, "Bilby" Dwyer, "Joe" Madden, "Jerry" Fay, and "Tim" Cavin, "Hay" Hartman, the former Wyanankas, will be in the line up as players of equal note can be used by Manager Tassilo of the Wyanankas and he can get the local five to line up several times. The local five will line up as usual and several utility men will go along to fill in, if necessary.

Over 1,000 members of the American Track Athletic association, with their friends, attended the first social of the association given Thursday night at the state armory on Pleasant street. The armory hall had been prettily decorated with American flags and bunting and the seal of the athletic association. The entertainment of the evening was provided by a Boston entertainment bureau and the band of the armory.

The front of the platform was covered by a band of music. The orchestra of Providence gave a fine concert of patriotic selection beginning at eight o'clock. The grand march was led by Commander George H. Jennings and Mrs. Jennings followed by the other officers and members of the post and their friends. A dance program of eighteen numbers followed. At the interval, sandwiches, cake and coffee, ice cream and soda were served in the Legion room. The members of the post were deeply appreciative of the generosity of the townpeople, who were only too glad to be given an opportunity to donate the wherewithal for the refreshments.

The girls who solicited were Misses Mary Couture, Jennie Roy, Mabel Wilcox, Jennie Blake and Agnes Brinkley. Two other young women superintended the food question. The committees who made the hall such a success were Commander George H. Jennings; Vice Commander Herbert Wyatt, Adjutant John T. Barry, treasurer, George Wilcox; Historian, Gilbert H. Minors; executive committee, Herbert A. Thompson, chairman; William Maynard, Edmund Lacroix, Russell Herbert, Ralph Kingsley, and a number of arrangements, Daniel Dwyer, Alexander Desjardins, Walter Benjamin, John T. Barry, Edmund Lacroix.

Prior to the social, the White Eagle Polish-American band, led by Andrew Ogopolek, paraded up Main street to Bridge street to Pleasant street and returned to the armory, where they played several selections in the hall before the entertainment began.

About 100 members of St. Paul's Episcopal church enjoyed a supper at the rectory Thursday night served by the women of the church. The supper was given for the purpose of stimulating interest in the local drive of that church in connection with the national drive of the denomination. The women of the church are in charge of the Girls' Friendly society kept things moving with their songs and society cheers. Following the supper, Frank H. Pease, chairman of the local committee for the drive, responded with a few words, as did Rev. Walter P. Borch, rector of the church. The principal speaker of the evening was Suffragan Bishop B. Camphor Acheson of Middletown, who spoke a few words explaining the purpose of the campaign. Small outlines of the city in districts with an explanation of what the church had done during the past year, and what it is to do during the year to come, had been prepared by Robert E. Mitchell and were placed at every place at the table. The drive in this city is to take place on Sunday and that the night might be successful Saturday has been designated by the church as a day of intercession and members of the church will be in the church all day Saturday at intervals and continuous prayer for the success of the drive will prevail.
